	specified commitment, then Responsiv may change pricing on thirty days' notice. 2) Responsiv will invoice: (i) recurring charges at the beginning of the billing frequency term; (ii) overage and usage charges in arrears; and one-time charges upon Responsiv's acceptance of an order. Term and Termination of a Cloud Service 1) The term begins on the date Responsiv notifies Customer that Customer can access the Cloud Services. The ordering TD will specify whether the Cloud Services renew automatically, proceed on a continuous use basis, or terminate at the end of the term. For automatic renewal, unless Customer provides written notice of non-renewal to Responsiv or the Responsiv Business Partner involved in the Cloud Services at least 30 days prior to the term expiration date, the Cloud Service will automatically renew for the specified term. For continuous use, the Cloud Services will continue to be available on a month to month basis until Customer provides 30 days written termination notice to Responsiv or the Responsiv Business Partner involved in the Cloud Service. The Cloud Services will remain available until the end of the calendar month after such 30-day period.
Enabling Software – Definition	Enabling Software is software made available from the Responsiv Asset Distribution Gateway (ADG) https://responsiv.co.uk/downloads/ that Customer downloads to Customer systems to facilitate use of a Cloud Service and will be identified in a TD. Enabling Software is not part of the Cloud Service and Customer may use Enabling Software only in connection with use of the Cloud Service in accordance with any licensing terms specified in a TD. The licensing terms will specify applicable warranties, if any. Otherwise, Enabling Software is provided as-is, without warranties of any kind.
Enabling Software	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - IBM App Connect Professional - IBM Data Studio - IBM App Connect Enterprise Toolkit
Miscellaneous	Certain end point applications may be subject to usage limitations imposed by the application provider. This may result in a lower number of permitted calls to an application than the relevant Cloud Service monthly limit.
Separately Licensed Code – Terms of Use	Responsiv may from time-to-time release "Extenders" for this product. Each extender will add a new feature or function and is licenced separately from this product. In such cases the capacity of entitlement for the separately licenced code must be calculated using the same metric as this product, and must be sufficient to match the capacity of this product. For example, if this Program were licensed on a core basis and the original purchase was a 4-core entitlement then the Customer would be required to obtain 4-core entitlements to the separately licenced code, "Extender" if they wished to benefit from this code.
Product Release Schedule	Responsiv Solutions does not commit to future development or support beyond our contractual obligations.

Responsiv Product Description

	Responsiv Unity software is our strategic platform and as such it is continually developed and maintained. Our release schedule for planning purposes is: Major Releases We expect to release a new major version of the product annually. This will roll-up any patches released since the last major release. Patches Patches are released as they are identified and developed. Patches are required to be applied in order. Patches are not intended to add to the features or capabilities of the platform/product. Patches are categorised into: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Security – Patch specifically or including for a security flaw or weakness.• Critical – Patch that will be requested by support to be applied before attempting to resolve a problem.• Optional – Nice to have fixes. Extenders Extenders are released as they become available. They extend the function or capability of an existing Responsiv Unity module and are optional. Extenders may be rolled into future releases at our sole discretion. Toolkits Toolkits are provided to help you write code for Responsiv Unity Modules that can take better advantage of the platform. They are “developer time” assets and provided as-is. Not all Responsiv Unity products have toolkits.
