Services

Responsiv Consulting

Responsiv Consultants have knowledge and expertise in developing, installing, managing, and upgrading IBM software so you see value from your ecosystem.

Responsiv Assist

Use Responsiv Assist to support old software versions during your upgrades, or for a managed service of your self-hosted, cloud, and SaaS IBM software.

Benefits

Support Costs

Responsiv provide support for products that are no longer supported by IBM. Our extended support offerings deliver incident recovery services to extend the life of your project.

Licence Costs

Responsiv is uniquely placed to negotiate licence costs and discounts so you can optimise your software investments.

Responsiv Platforms

Responsiv Cloud and Responsiv Unity platforms are 100% compatible with IBM software, supporting seamless integration and migration with your existing IBM estate.
